THE BOORDY STORY

Boordy Vineyards has been growing and making fine wines in Maryland since 1945. Located on the historic R.B. Deford Family farm in rural Baltimore County, the winery is a Maryland landmark that welcomes visitors year-round.

Boordy farms 47 acres of estate vineyards in two favorable microclimates: Long Green Vineyard in the rolling Piedmont Plateau north of the Chesapeake Bay and South Mountain Vineyard in the Blue Ridge Province of western Frederick County.

Boordy's state of the art winery blends innovative methods with traditional practices to craft award-winning wines. Crisp delicate whites and roses and rich, earthy reds are a testament to Boordy's attention to detail in every step from vine to glass.

Rob Deford, a 12th generation Marylander trained in enology at the University of California, serves as Boordy's president. He has dedicated his knowledge of viticulture and his love of wine to Boordy Vineyards for over forty years. He works with his son Phineas, his wife Julie, his sister Sally, and a talented staff to create the dynamic winery that Boordy is today.
